FLOW's overarching policy aim is to contribute to structural poverty reduction by improving gender equality and the empowerment of women. Women and girls around the world must be given equal rights and opportunities. In order to subsidise activities promoting this objective, the Minister for European Affairs and International Cooperation has made the sum of €70 million available for the 2012-2015 period.

Activities designed to promote economic self-reliance, through giving women a say in food security, employment and property rights and access to safe drinking water

The minimum grant application is €1 million and the maximum €6 million, and the duration of the activities for which grant funding is sought does not exceed four years.

The last date for submission is the 29th of July. The Minister will decide on grant applications no later than 15 November 2011. Find more information via:
